Funeral of Henry Aiken.

The funeral of the late William Henry Aiken took place yesterday afternoon from Odd Fellows Hall and was under the auspices of Capital Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., the members of Rebekah Lodge, No. 14 also attended in a body. The interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery in the family plot.

The funeral was largely attended and aside from the many friends in this city many came from Carson Valley and especially from the Dangberg ranch where deceased had been employed for a number of years and was a general favorite. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Following were the pall bearers:

Joe Cardanella, Jim Murphy, John Catton, Chas. Spriglmeyer, Chris Dangberg, Sam Martin.

Just received at Meyers Merc. Co. a car of choice Oregon Apples, choice varieties.

Will Ask for Pardon.

Three men sent to the penitentiary from Esmeralda county will ask for pardon before the next meeting of the Board. They are all serving an additional sentence for jail breaking. They are Chas. Angal, George Graham and J. A. McPherson. Graham is serving a term for forgery and McPherson for jail breaking.

The case that probably brings the men before the Board of Pardons is that of Angal. He was conducting a butcher shop at Goldfield and was charged with embezzlement. He claims that he owns an interest in the shop. He received a telegram announcing the illness of his wife and left hurriedly for her bedside. He was arrested and escaped from jail to be at her call. For this with the other charge he was sentenced to two years imprisonment.

His wife came to this city with her two children and insists that her husband is guiltless. She has worked at anything she can find to do and intends to remain here until her husband is released. From what can be learned of the case he should receive the clemency of the Board.

Suffering from Typhoid.

Hoyt P. Smith arrived from Tonopah last evening with his wife, nee Chrisler, who is ill with typhoid fever.

Archie McCabe has returned from a trip to Arkansas Hot Springs. He is considerably improved in health.

Four Indian girls escaped from the Stewart Institute Thursday evening. After spending a night in the snow banks south of this city they were captured and returned to the school, none the worse for their nights exposure.

THE IMPROVIDENT INDIAN.

He Cleans Out the Rabbit in One Common Drive.

Yesterday was jack rabbit day with the local Indians. They gathered from all quarters and an onslaught on the feeble jack rabbit was indulged in. The frightened animals were simply rounded up and in their exhausted state the Indians cleaned out everything in sight. They swept the brush clean from the Indian School to the North Carson Mine. The returning bucks with the dangling rabbits told the story of the slaughter.

The Indian seems as improvident in his rabbit hunting as everything else that he does. He makes one grand round up, slaughters everything in sight, feasts for two or three days and then plants his nose against the white man's crib for the rest of the winter.

Rabbits have been very scarce in this valley for the past two or three years and the few that managed to survive a plague that went through them were put out of commission yesterday. A jack rabbit will be as scarce as a life insurance agent from this time on.

BEST ON THE CIRCUIT.

Parisian Belle Extravaganza Company to Appear Next Week.

The Parisian Belles Extravaganza Co., one of the newest offerings to the burlesque stage will be seen at the opera house next Wednesday evening. The company is an evenly balanced one and promises to set records throughout the country in the way of big business that will be hard to beat. The curtain raiser is a musical absurdity entitled the Sultans Wives and from start to finish the fun is fast and furious. The musical numbers introduce a chorus of show girls who promise to become popular for the manner in which they sing and dance.

Next we have an olio of high class vaudeville including Maurice J. Burns and E. J. Morris, which is one of the funniest sets in burlesque or vaudeville. In order that every one may go home satisfied and contented with what they received and all that was coming to them for their money. Mr. Grieves has arranged a funny Burlesque entitled, "The Girl from Manila," which will serve to introduce the full strength of the company to the best possible advantage.

Divorce Granted.

Yesterday morning at a session of the District Court, Judge Murphy presiding, the case of Twaddle vs. Twaddle came up. The complaint was on a charge of extreme cruelty charged by Mrs. Twaddle. It was supposed that a cross complaint would be entered but no such evidence was introduced. The only argument was on alimony. This was waived, as was the attorney fees, and the divorce granted.
